Steamer Chased New Offensive By Two Raiders

WAS FIRED UPON.

Heatile Craft Loomed Up Without Any Flags Showing-The Venizia Escaped by Superior Speed.

New York, May 7.—The steamship Venizia, arriving here today from Bordeaux, France, with forty American citizens aboard, was fired upon and chased for several hours by two commerce raiders while off the Azores, according to a story related when the vessel docked. Reports had been in circulation in the western Atlantic and the news brought by the Venzia caused alarm in shipping circles.

Accuracy of Story Vouched For. Captain Boniface and members of the crew of the Venezia were reticent when questioned concerning an attack upon the yessel, but the Americans on board, who were employed in caring for horses transported on the Vone-zia's last voyage eastward vouched for he accuracy of the story.

Raiders Made Sudden Dash. According to these men, the Xene-zia encountered the commerce raiders zia encountered the commerce raiders said, loomed up without any flags showing and bore down on the Venezia. Captain Boniface at once became suspicious and prepared for a sudden dash. The raiders signalled to the Venezia to slow down, but Captola Foniface's answer was an order tain Boniface's answer was an order for full speed ahead.

Shot Passed Over Bow. As the Venezia started to bear away, according to the story told, a shot cassed over her. This was followed passed over her. This was followed by another, which dropped close to the Venezia. Before a third shot was fired, the Venezia had increasal the distance between her and the raiders so that the effort to overhaul her proved unsuccessful.
